Reunion of the 14th S. C. Volunteers

Mr. Temple Ligot, of Anderson, tas also been for several days with his kinsfolk, at the same home.

It is no longer a much mooted question as to who "struck" Patterson. It the last week's issues of the papers of the state are preserved, future generations will have a record for reference, as to that matter.

The membership in part of the Baptist and Presbyterian Churches, met Friday upon their respective church grounds, and did some necessary cleaning up. The last named cleaned joff nicely their cemetery grounds. In travelling over the country it is a matter of great surprise to see, the neglected condition of these sacred spots. There are no doubt very few, if any, members of any of the churches, so sordid in their feeling, so lost to all sense of the eternal fitness of things, as not to want their houses of worship, well arranged comfortable and attractive, and yet, there are very many, who are seemingly wholly indifferent as to how the silent houses of their loved ones look. This ought not to be so.

Mr. Clement, Allen, of Washington, D. C., reached here Friday evening to spend a month's vacation given him by the authorities at the Capital and as he comes to a mode cooler place than is his home, he will doubtless have a more pleasant time than to have remained where he was.

Mrs. Martha Watson, of Anderson, has been

Mrs. Martha Watson, of Anderson, has been with the family of her son-in-law, Mr. B. Berry Allen, for the past week.

Miss Eula May Kay, started several days ago for Hendersonville. N C. She will remain there during the greater part, if not all, of the healed term.

main there during the greater part, if not all, of the heated term.

Mr. Ernest Allen, Miss Meta and Miss Vera Allen, and Master Theron Allen, started for a mountain trip Wedneeday. They went by the dirt road in a two horse wagon, being well provided with an abundance of the good things of life to secure their comfort and happiness. They will meet friends in Anderson County who will join them, and together they expect a joyful time.

Magistrate J. G. Huckabee attended the singing convention at Shiloh Saturday. He reports quite a large attendance, and that everything passed off pleasantly and profitably, and a few of our citizens attended the state campaign meeting at Abbeville, on the same day, and they make a good report of the same.

Anderson, C. H. came Saturday and has alone been shaking hands with his many friends here. He has perfected arrangements to spend the next two years in Germany, that he may be equipped for his life work.

On Wednesday last there was a reunion of the 14th, Regiment of S. C. v. at Carswell in Anderson, Co. This writer in company with Magistrate J. E. Huckabee attended it. By loo if A. de seed that the state of six or eight miles, were there. Then there had come many, from a distance of fifteen or twenty miles. A prominent figure and one who received much attention was the aged Mr. Martin Hall who lives quite near. He is 85 years of age, is an Invalid, and the state of the solicitor next two above candidates for Lieutenant Governor, and first Legislature. Then came Col. Hoyt, candidate for Governor. All of these speakers left politics out of their speeches entirely and to hear them no one would have supposed for a moment that they were perhaps itching to branch out along that line, but they each uttered sentiments and brought out aleas more fitting the occasion. As the gathering took place several miles beyond the Anderson line, as as several candidates, were there from this county, it might be concluded that they are expansionists. As the crowd was so very large, and might be supposed to be unweldly, and incontrolable, yet there was not the slightest act of disorder, either seen by or reported to this writer. Everything passed off quietly and creditably to all present.

Mr. J. E. Boggs, of Oconee, stopped over here Monday on his way to the county campaign meeting, which took place at McCormick the next day.

There was a little mad dog scare here yesterday week ago. The night before some of our canne owners had the peace of their pets disturbed by a fight with some visiting dog, it could not be determined in the dark what sort or size. The next morning the same dog it was supposed returned, and as it showed symptoms of beling mad, it was killed.

Mr. D. M. Lipscomb, of Ninety-Six, came up Monday and stayed until Friday with his friend, Mr. R. H. Moseley.

Miss Ludie Hill, of Greenwood, spent a part of last week with Miss Nellie Moseley and other friends.

Mr. Alex Gibert, of Graniteville, Secretary of the cotton mill, came up Thursday to enjoy a few days rest from his labors. His family are spending the summer here, and he will be with them for a few days.

Mr. G. W. Speer, of Monterey, made this year 71½ bushels of oats on one acre of land and his brother, Dr. A. J. Speer made only twelve dozen of oats on five acres of good bottom land. Quite a difference in yield.

Miss Lillian McDavid was expected here Tuesday last, but failed to reach here. As is known to the readers of the Pressand Banner, she has been serving as a Missionary in Porto Rico for sometime. Not many days ago she returned to the United States, bringing with her a Porto Rican boy about twelve years of age, who came to this country to be educated, and as the first step along that line, will soon enter the Preparatory School at Due West.

Our Eaptist friends have repainted their church here on the outside, and will very soon paint it on the inside.

On Friday last the county campaign meeting for this place came off. It was conducted in due form and with proper decorum. The candidates declared it to be the best attended of any one that has yet been held. A great many of our good ladies from far and near lent to their presence thereby adding very much to the pleasures of the occasion. Dinner baskets and trunks were much in evidence, and they were well laden with viands which were very appetizing about 1 p. m., and they well supplied a felt-want about that time. There was enough and to spare after all were satisfied. Chairman I. H. McCalla introduced at 10 a. m., as first speaker, Hon. A. C. Lattimer, then came his opponent Dr. Wyche, these two are candidates for Congress. Next came Capt. J. A. M
